GONZALEZ, Francisco J., in Plato 11
(2011) , [En ligne] , March 2012

Volume 11 of Plato (2011) contains ten articles, seven of which are on the Republic and represent revised versions of papers presented at the 2010 IPS meeting in Tokyo. The volume also contains three articles on the Theaetetus, the Phaedo and the Theages along with the Cleitophon, respectively, in addition to a review of a recent collection of papers on the Timaeus. In short, the volume offers a diverse sampling of work currently being done on Plato's dialogues both within the International Plato Society and outside of it.

This volume is the first one under my editorship, though it could not have been published without the assistance, technical and otherwise, of Olivier Renaut. This has therefore been a transitional year, though one that I hope provides a good starting-point for the future direction of the journal.
